

There is a saying that, "The movement happens when people do the things they sing about." Here is the music that keeps us keeping on — doing the justice that transforms.

Loretta Williams
Director of Social Responsibility,
Unitarian Universalist Association

There are not words to adequately express the spirituality, warmth, and joy that send chills through my soul as I experience this music. Those who work and sing for justice as much as you will never regret.

Ntsiki Langford
South Africa

This music comes from one who has heard and felt the struggle and living of others. Carolyn McDade's music educates us all to those efforts. Coupled with the songs that come from our own lives we sing a collective engagement process.

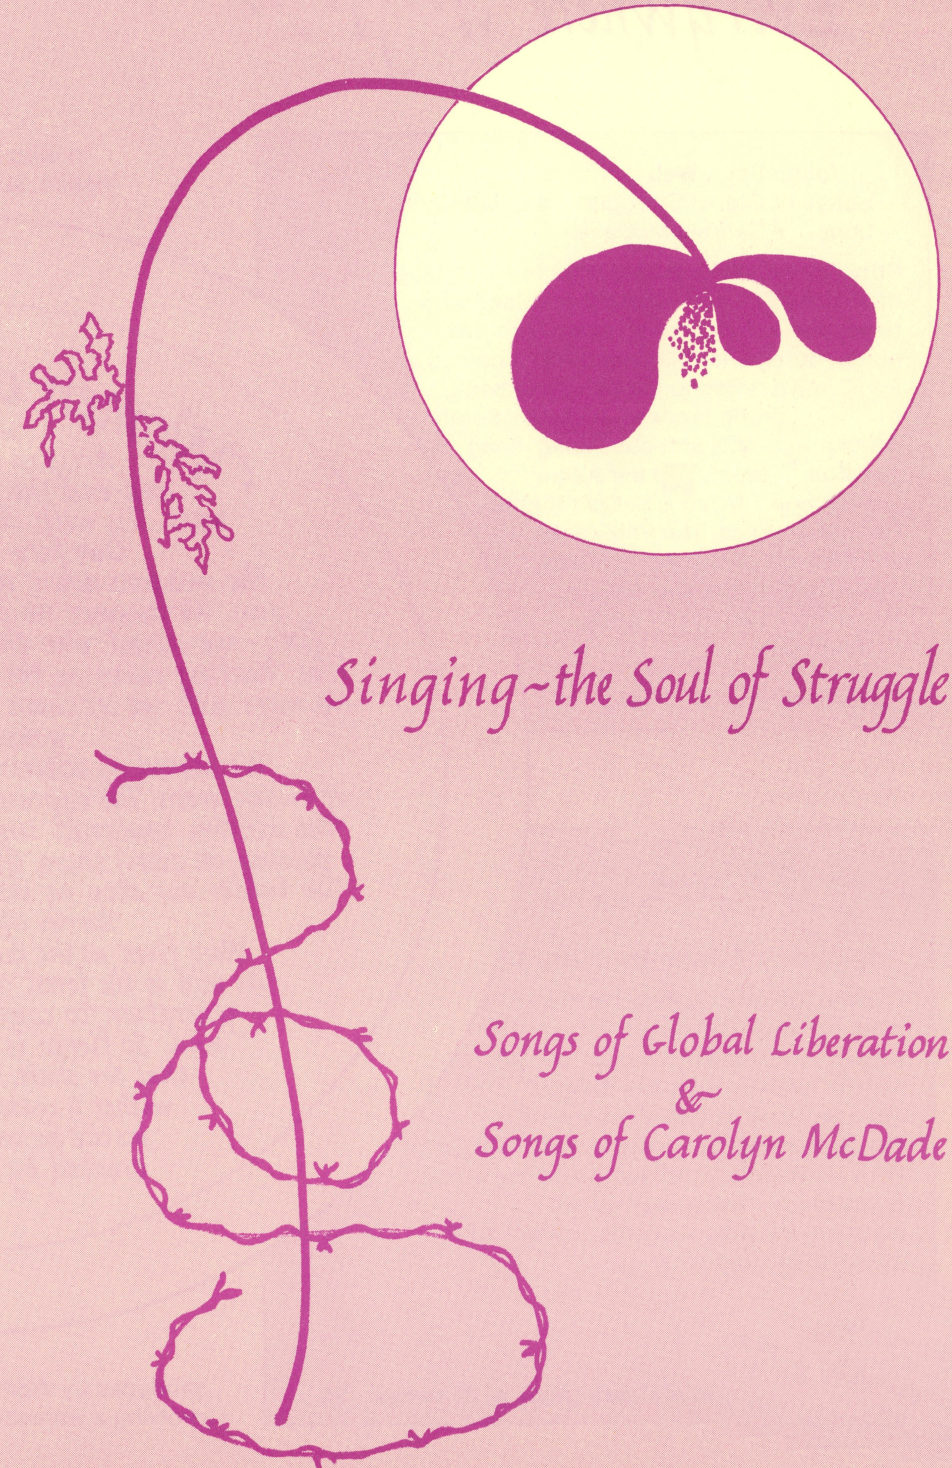

Nancy Richardson
Women's Theological Center

The music of Carolyn McDade is lifegiving because it is born out of the desire for solidarity with all who suffer injustice. Her crystal clear voice and strong presence enunciate a musical theology which calls us to be in our deepest possible way.

Ada Maria Isasi-Diaz
Hispanic Mujerista Theologian
in the process of bringing forth
Hispanic Women's liberation theology

Womancenter at Plainville is a farmhouse gathering space in southeastern Massachusetts. Our focus is the evolving of a women's perspective of justice. We seek the integration of spirituality, politics, arts, and community toward the liberation of women and oppressed people, and creating the solidarity toward that end.

Womancenter at Plainville
76 Everett Skinner Road
Plainville, Massachusetts, 02762
(phone 508- 699-7167)
Co-directors-Chris Loughlin, OP, and Carolyn McDade

Singing~the Soul of Struggle

*Songs of Global Liberation
&
Songs of Carolyn McDade*

Everywhere we go we carry with us the power of our voices.

Order Form

This Tough Spun Web

Songs of Global Struggle and Solidarity & Songs of Carolyn McDade

Fifty justice-seeking women create this tape of 16 songs - a rich weaving of voices with cello, piano, flute, bass, rebec, dulcimer, guitar, drum, and folk harp. With it comes an informative reflection/action/song book, useful for group process. Includes South African women's anti-pass song, song of a Korean woman to her Asian sisters, songs from U.S. Civil Rights, Central America, The Phillipines, and 7 songs of Carolyn McDade, including Trouble and Beauty, title song, Prayer to Friends, Chant Series.

Cassette/book set $15

Sing Songs that inspire, sustain, celebrate

Rain Upon Dry Land

Songs of Carolyn McDade

Chorus of 35 women sing 15 songs which come like rain upon an earth thirsting for freedom, peace, liberation. Includes freedom song of South Africa, rallying cry of landless Brazilians, Civil Rights song, and 11 songs by Carolyn McDade, including Come Drink Deep, Song of Community, Song to Mary, Rising Green, I Come of My People, I Lift Mine Eyes, Idania's Letter. (with voices, piano, cello, flute, guitar and dulcimer)

Cassette $7
Songbook $3

We Come With Our Voices

Feminist Songs of Peace and Justice
by Carolyn McDade and Friends

"Call to Women" (printed in the circle) is one of 12 songs sung on this tape by Carolyn and 20 activist woman. Includes Song of Woman, Spirit of Life, Creation of Peace, Coming Out of Exile, Who Will Go With My People. Emphasis is on the power of the human voice with simple instrumentation of accompaniment with guitar, piano, dulcimer.

Cassette $6.50

Also available:

Songs of Carolyn McDade (Book of 36 songs) $5

*Women of the earth
Arise in every land
and end their cruel & deadly wars - 'Tis with the tree of life we stand.
Our fury will melt all
the weapons down, our hands will bend every
gun. We answer no boundary, no proud-waving flag - we stand o'er the earth as one. Our tears are like healing rains on the land - Love's fury is in our cry.
No more will we let them profane our earth, or send our young to die.
We stand as sisters unto the earth, her forests of living green. The cypress and ginkgo, the oak & the pine,
The millions unnamed, unseen. Our blood's in the seas pulsing on every shore, the wind bears our word & our song.
So tender our step on this green growing earth that carries life on and on.
We're firm as the mountains, as free as the wind,
As wild as the forest of old. The rights of each generation to come unite us with spirits bold. So fierce is our love of this life that we share, these wars then must wither & cease - Replaced by a
justice for one & for all,
created by living peace.*

produced by Womancenter at Plainville
...evolving a women's perspective of justice

Carolyn McDade, for two decades, has written, sung, and gathered women to sing songs rooted in our experiences and visions of what is real and what is sacred. Her songs affirm and empower us as women of faith to trust ourselves to envision and act for a new tomorrow of justice and peace. They have been used globally in feminist and justice movements. She has participated in planning worship and music for local, national, and continental conferences, workshops, and church services. This music is excellent for retreats, liturgies, ritual, reflection, rallies, and demonstrations.

Womancenter at Plainville
76 Everett Skinner Rd.
Plainville, Massachusetts, 02762
(phone 508-699-7167)

This Tough Spun Web
Cassette/book set $15.....

Rain Upon Dry Land
Cassette $7.....
Songbook $3.....

We Come With Our Voices
Cassette $6.50.....

Songs of Carolyn McDade
(Book of 36 songs) $5.....

Postage and Handling $.....
(include $1.50 for cassette,
$2.00 for tape and book; add
50¢ for each added item.)

Total for order $.....

Please make payable in U.S. funds.

.....
Name

.....
Address

.....
City

.....
State Zip

Thank you for your order and for passing along the word on our work and resources. This money helps to sustain our ongoing justice work.