2. If you are not covered above and do not intend to explore this copyright service, please remit a one-time fee of $15.00 to one of the addresses given below, depending on your location.
3. This letter covers non-profit use only. For consideration of permission for commercial use of this music, please contact me individually.
4. The following is permitted with no need for additional communication:
  - a. You may print lyrics in your program or worship bulletin with proper attribution.
  - b. You may copy lyrics and music from a source that you own for use by musicians.
  - c. You may project lyrics on a screen to aid singing during your event.
  - d. You may include video clips of the singing on your congregation's or organization's website, in live-streaming of worship and other events, and in media prepared for shut-ins and others unable to attend.

May our singing deepen our living . . .

go well,

Carolyn McDade
